Students color the words according to the key to show a mystery picture. This particular center focuses on long a, short a, long e, and short e. 1.RF.2a Distinguish long from short vowel sounds in spoken, single syllable words. Subjects: Reading E Race: a long E vs short E game! I made this resource for me to try with my reading pullout group who have a hard time knowing when is it a Long E and when is it a short E. A review game for the short E and long E words. These include words with ee and ea sounds. This is my first published product, so please if any tips or critiques, let me know. Subjects: WORDO - Long and Short u (u, u-e, ui, and oo) by WORDO game is played like BINGO. There are six game cards, each with the same words, but in different locations. This listing also includes WORDO calling cards for each of the four categories (short u, long u (u-e, ui, and oo). Enjoy! Subjects: Phoneme dash long and short vowel sounds a, e, i, o and u by A Slideshow for supporting children with quick recall of the graphemes for both the long and short sounds a, e, i, o and u. The graphemes are presented in phoneme families and have the phoneme family character present to support children with recalling the correct phoneme. I remind children of the family name to help them remember e.g. "This is the Grey family all their graphemes make the sound 'ai' ". The first slides are all short vowel sounds. Short and Long 'E' by Use this resource to work on short and long e vowel sounds! First page is a short story where students will read and then highlight words with the sound pattern. Second and third page is a word search! Word search can be used in two ways. 1. Children find the words on their own and then write which words they find on the bottom or 2. Children find the words listed at the bottom and cross off as they go! Subjects: These coinciding worksheets include short a sounds and long a (a, ai, and a consonant e) sounds. It can be administered digitally or printed out, but since it uses so much color, it's intended for digital use. The directions are clear and concise and it aids in spelling, since some new readers are able to identify words when reading books but find spelling the words themselves challenging. Writing words with the Long and Short E sound! Print and glue to create your own interactive file folder. Instructions are included and should be glued to the front of the file folder, while the interactive pages should be glued on the inside of the file folder. Once you have glued down the pages you can laminate and use over and over again. This file folder game reinforces long and short e sounds. The students come up with words that have long e or short e sounds and write them in the appropriate places. Enjoy!
