Find the Best Car Deals Near You - February 21, 2013 If you're in the market for a used car, the city you purchase in may have an impact on the price. According to Forbes, there can be quite a difference in car prices between US cities. For instance, cars sold in Miami, FL are nearly 7 percent less expensive than the national average, while used cars in Jackson, MS may make you fork over 9 percent more than the national average. Here's a look at the top 10 most affordable and least affordable cities in the US when it comes to buying a used car, based on the national average transaction price. 10 Most Affordable Cities City % Below National Average Price Miami, FL -6.6% Cleveland, OH -5.7% Rochester, NY -5.4% Detroit, MI -4.7% Stamford, CT -4.7% Akron, OH -4.4% Buffalo, NY -4.4% Toledo, OH -3.7% New York, NY -3.7% Minneapolis, MN -2.8% 10 Least Affordable Cities City % Above National Average Price Jackson, MS 9.0% Seattle, WA 6.4% Montgomery, AL 5.8% Little Rock, AR 5.8% Knoxville, TN 5.5% Mobile, AL 5.3% Fresno, CA 4.8% Memphis, TN 4.8% Wichita, KS 4.8% Lincoln, NE 4.7% The key to getting the best deal is to gather price or lease bids from as many local dealers as possible. Then shop that best price around until no one can beat it. Here are the steps: Select the vehicle you're interested in to see if there are local dealers in my network who will provide you with their best upfront price. You will get direct access to an internet sales manager who you can further negotiate with online (no need to visit dealership). Select Vehicle to Get Local Pricing TrueCar, and CarsDirect are my top 2 online price quote recommendations. These services show you pre-negotiated prices from dealers closest to you - and the deals are usually pretty decent. But remember, you can still negotiate further. Follow this up with my checklist to make sure you squeeze out every last bit of savings. - Gregg Fidan I welcome your car buying questions. Email Me and I'll be glad to answer them!
