Grand Finale

Indian idol season 12 grand finale salman ali performance. Salman ali and danish grand finale performance. Indian idol 12 grand finale salman ali performance.

Sony TV's kids singing reality show, Superstar Singer 2 saw a curtain fall today. After tugging the heartstrings of the audience for over two months, the show marked its end with a bang. Little children from different parts of India left no stone unturned in blowing minds away with their spectacular singing talent. The grand finale was an amalgamation of music, glamour, fun awards, and most importantly fabulous singers. After months of entertaining the audiences and mightily impressing the judges with killer performances Superstar Singer 2 finally got its top 6 finalists. Mohammad Faiz, Mani, Pranjal Biswas, Sayisha Gupta, Aryananda R Babu, and Rituraj made it to the finals. As the show reached the last leg of the competition, the finalists left audiences awestruck with their terrific performances. The grand finale of Superstar Singers 2 kickedstarted on an auspicious note with all the contestants seeking the blessings of Lord Ganesha. The captains Mohammad Danish, Pawandeep Rajan, Arunita Kanjilal, Sayli Kamble Patil, and Salman Ali were seen having a while of a time as their students put their best foot forward. Gracing the episode were veteran Bollywood stars Padmini Kolhapure and Poonam Dhillon, Music Maestro - Anand ji Shah, and Indian playback singers Shabbir Kumar, Sonu Kakkar, and Bhoomi Trivedi. Actor Vijay Vikram Singh and choreographer Puneet Pathak too graced the occasion. Hosts Bharti Singh and Harsh Limbachiya like always were a laughter riot and made the audience laugh their guts out with their hilarious sense of humour. The top 6 finalists flattered not just the audience but also the show's judges Alka Yagnik, and Himesh Reshammiya with their captivating voices. Mohammad Faiz thrilled the audience with his songs-a beautiful rendition of 'Khamoshiyan' and 'Kaise Hua', Pehle Nasha, Kesariya and Koi Mil Gaya. Prabhu Pranjal pays a beautiful tribute to his parents and Bengali culture by singing Ekla chalo re, O maajhi re, Monta re and Allah ke Bando. Next up was Mani who made onlookers get goosebumps with his mature and fabulous voice. He sang Kache Dhaage, Jhoom Barabar Jhoom and enthralled the audiences. The little prankster of the show, Rituraj made a blockbuster-style entry on songs like Vaathi coming, Srivalli, Lungi Dancer, and Nacho Nacho. Aryananda R. Babu was seen giving a phenomenal performance on the songs Ghar More Pardesiya, Jab Saiyaan, Kaha Soja Zara, and Dholida. Sayisha Gupta gave a stupendous performance on the songs - Ek Do Teen, Legai Legai Dil, Mere Khababon Mein, Jo Aaye, and Disco Deewane. Super judges Himesh Reshammiya and Alka Yagnik too enthralled the audience with their extraordinary performances. Proud of Mani's achievement and journey on the show, a reputed English medium school from his hometown Dharamkot even offered to sponsor the entire education of Mani and his siblings. After 3 and a half hours of pure entertainment, music and things fun, contestant Mohammad Faiz from Jodhpur was declared the winner of the season. Along with the trophy, the young singer also won a reward prize of Rs. 15 lakh from Sony Entertainment Television. Superstar Singer 2's main USP was the little talented bunch of children from various walks of life, who literally breathed life and music into the singing reality show. With this, Superstar Singer 2 now makes way for the 13th season of the hit music reality show Indian Idol and also for The Kapil Sharma Show. It is the 2nd instalment of the "Sa Re Ga Ma Pa Challenge" series and the 4th public voting competition in the "Sa Re Ga Ma Pa" series. Chronologically, the show is preceded by Sa Re Ga Ma Pa L'il Champs, however systematically it is followed by Sa Re Ga Ma Pa Challenge 2005. The show features two of the previous mentors, Himesh Reshammiya and Ismail Darbar, and two new mentors to the Challenge series, Bappi Lahiri and Vishal-Shekar. Shaan did not return to host and was replaced by Aditya Narayan, son of playback singer, Udit Narayan. The new logo is significantly different from the 2005 logo. It features headphones on a globe to represent itself as an international competition, instead of a previous logo consisting of a portrayal of a duet singing. On 13 October at the Grand Finale, the show broke voting records with a collection of 10,61,44,354 (10.6 crores or 106 million) votes worldwide from 181 countries. In the final tally Aneek Dhar was declared the winner with 3,65,89,134 votes, Raja Hasan as the 1st runner-up with 3,43,14,257 votes, and Amanat Ali as the 2nd runner-up with 3,43,14,257 votes. Gharana selection The Gharana (literally "House") is utilised similarly to a House system used in schools and colleges. The contestants of the gharanas have been chosen by the mentors themselves. Two of the four previous gharanas that were featured on Sa Re Ga Ma Pa Challenge 2005 have been replaced - Aadesh Shrivastava's [ai Ho and [atin-Lalit's Dum have now been replaced with "Joshi" and "Hit Squad". The following list represents the initial 32 contestants who were chosen by the mentors and in the order they were introduced. This round basically allowed the public to bring an eliminated contestant back into the competition. The gharana who received the Bramhastra got to choose two eliminated contestants for the finals (Agnipariksha). Vishal-Shekar received this Bramhastra and they chose 6 contestants. The six contestants were: Sarika Singh (Hit Squad) Harpreet Deol (Hit Squad) Rajesh Roshan (Hit Squad) Saaberi Bhattacharya (Hit Squad) Musarrat Abbas (Hit Squad) Desh Gaurav Singh (Yalgaar) Of the six contestants that were chosen by Vishal-Shekar, the two finalists with most votes from the public and subsequently elected and brought back into the competition were: Raja Hasan with 31% of the votes Sunil Kumar (Joshi) Raja Hassan (Hit Squad) Saaberi Bhattacharya (Hit Squad) Musarrat Abbas (Hit Squad) Desh Gaurav Singh (Yalgaar) Of the six contestants that were chosen by Abhijeet Kosambi, winners of the regional spinoffs, Sa Re Ga Ma Pa Bangla and Sa Re Ga Ma Pa Marathi, got direct entry as finalists. Their direct entry into the finals caused some controversy that Ismail Darbar had the courage point out. However, after Himesh Reshammiya pleaded with Ismail, the issue dissolved. See Aneek-Abhijit controversy section for further details. These are the names of the top five finalists listed in order. Public voting is done through SMS, telephone or online. Each week, the contestant with lowest votes is eliminated. Additionally, if all the contestants of a Gharana get eliminated, the Gharana also gets eliminated and subsequently the mentor(s) have to leave the show. † During the week of 17 August, there was no eliminated contestant. That week's votes were added to the votes for the week of 24 August, and Junaid was then eliminated on the episode airing on 24 August. Controversies Aneek-Abhijit controversy On 29 June, Aditya Narayan announced that Aneek Dhar and Abhijeet Kosambi, the winners of the regional spinoffs of Sa Re Ga Ma Pa Bangla and Sa Re Ga Ma Pa Marathi, would be getting direct entry as a Top 14 finalist. This was a pre decided qualification as it was a part of their respective prizes of winning the regional contests. The viewers of Marathi and Bangla had already seen and heard this announcement at live telecast on stage when Abhijeet Kosambi and Aneek Dhar had won the respective competitions, so in fact there was no need for any controversy in that case. Yet the mentors did not approve of this saying they should not be allowed to enter the competition in the middle and that they should have come from the beginning. Ismail Darbar tried to walk away from the show stalling the shooting of the program. In the latter episodes, Abhijeet Kosambi was eliminated with the fewest votes. Aneek Dhar is the only contestant in Himesh Reshammiya's 'gharana'. However Aneek Dhar has been in the Bottom 2 once. Aneek was also the top contestant thrice in the show and eventually ended up winning it all. Independence Day controversy The Independence Day special episode shot on 10 August (Week 15) ran into a controversy when the issue came up of the Pakistani contestants, Junaid, Musarrat and Amanat refused to sing Indian patriotic songs on 15 August special. All work on the sets was stalled for 6 hours. Finally, the Zee TV officials decided that the Pakistani contestants should sing Pakistani patriotic songs as a solution. However, the next week, the three Pakistani singers were the Bottom Three. It was then decided that no contestant would be eliminated that week and the week's votes would be added to the votes of the following week to decide the next elimination. Sa Re Ga Ma Pa Ek Shaam Taj Ke Naam Sa Re Ga Ma Pa Ek Shaam Taj Ke Naam Sa Re Ga Ma Pa Ek Shaam Taj Ke Naam was a one-day special episode organised by the SRGMP team as a tribute to the Taj Mahal and also dedicated to request and encourage people to vote for the Taj Mahal as one of the New Seven Wonders of the World. As well as performances from the contestants of the season, the special episode also featured performances from contestants of previous SRGMP seasons such as Twinkle Bajpai, Sanchita Bhattacharya, Diwaker Sharma and Sameer Mahapatra. Miscellaneous Observations According to facts, there are six not four Pakistanis taking part in the competition unlike as shown on the show. The other two Pakistanis who got selected apart from the original Pakistani screening are Imran Aslam from South Africa whose hometown is Karachi[citation needed] and Amanat Ali from
