

I'm not a robot

Athena career academy toledo

To be eligible for the LPN to RN Program, applicants must meet specific requirements which include attending an admissions meeting with a financial aid administrator, submitting official transcripts and identification documents, and passing background checks. Additionally, students must provide proof of immunizations, health records, and complete required courses such as first aid and CPR training. The program's duration varies depending on the class schedule chosen but graduates are expected to be licensed RNs after completing the state-approved registered nursing program and passing the NCLEX Nursing Board Exam. You're passionate about making a positive impact on others' lives and seeking a career that offers stability, variety, and opportunities for growth. Healthcare is an excellent choice, as demand is already high and expected to increase in the coming years. However, it's crucial to recognize that "healthcare" encompasses numerous roles, each with its own requirements. Some healthcare careers require extensive training, while others can be completed within a few months. If you're unsure about which path to take, we can help you find the perfect fit. The benefits of a career in healthcare are unparalleled. Job security is ensured, regardless of economic conditions, and there's a wide range of positions available, allowing for advancement opportunities. Furthermore, as a healthcare professional, you'll know that your work is making a tangible difference in patients' lives, leading to a sense of fulfillment and value. You don't need to become a doctor or nurse to have a fulfilling career in healthcare; various options exist without requiring advanced degrees. These include Medical Assistant, Certified Nursing Assistant, Phlebotomist, Rehabilitation Specialist, Medical Imaging Technician, and Pharmacy Technician. When choosing your path, consider your personal interests, strengths, and motivations for pursuing a career in healthcare. Think about what drives you: helping others in need, interacting with patients, or being fascinated by the science behind medical imaging. Even if you're unsure about your long-term goals, starting as a Medical Assistant can be an excellent way to gain experience and use it as a stepping stone for future growth. To choose the right path, begin by reflecting on where you are now and where you want to be in the future. There are several options for those who want to begin their career in healthcare quickly, including roles that require less training and class time. If you have an associate's degree or plan to get one, there may be more advanced or technical opportunities available, but they may also take more time to complete. It's essential to consider your educational background and research the different roles that interest you, including their educational requirements and financial investment. You can pursue various healthcare roles with an associate's degree or training certification, such as becoming a medical assistant, CNA, or even specializing in areas like medical transcription or administration. However, it's crucial to think about your work environment preferences, work-life balance needs, and how each role aligns with your lifestyle. A career in healthcare can lead to long-term success, offering job security, in-demand careers, and opportunities for advancement and specialization. If you're interested in making a difference in patients' lives, consider roles that focus on clinical care rather than administrative tasks. Athena Career Academy offers a comprehensive medical assistant training program, providing dedicated students with the support they need to succeed. The academy is accredited by the Commission of the Council on Occupational Education and approved by the US Department of Education. Athena Career Academy operates under the authority of the Ohio Board of Nursing. The school offers financial aid through Title IV, making it accessible to those who qualify. Students can receive assistance throughout the financial aid process by calling (419) 329-4075. Uniform fittings are conducted during orientation sessions. Several graduates have expressed their satisfaction with Athena's programs, citing excellent instructors and hands-on learning experiences. Thank you for your hard work, Athena Career Academy staff! I would like to thank the Athena Career Academy for giving me a great opportunity to become a nurse. I appreciated the diverse atmosphere in both classes and clinical experiences, which made my learning very interesting. I really enjoyed my time at Athena Career Academy because it gave me so much knowledge about people and life! And thanks to the school's programs, I learned that there is always room for improvement. I am grateful for the experience and look forward to continuing my education. At Athena Career Academy, you can find a phlebotomy program with small classes where teachers really care about your success. Many students have found it to be an excellent decision in their educational journey. So once again thank you Athena! Athena Career Academy is accredited by the Commission of the Council on Occupational Education. The school is registered under Ohio Board of Career Colleges and Schools; State of Ohio - School Registration Number - 10-09-1943T and operates under authority of the Ohio Board of Nursing. For more information, contact the Student Operations Manager. Athena Career Academy is seeking a reaffirmation of accreditation with the Commission of the Council on Occupational Education. If you would like to comment, write to the Executive Director or submit your comments through their website. Please provide your name and address when making comments. Hands-on clinical experiences. Passionate faculty. Small class sizes are the main differences at Athena Career Academy. For over two decades, I was hesitant to enter the phlebotomy program at Athena, but once I met my instructors and got to know the students, it was one of the best decisions I've made about education in a long time. The teachers care about our success and the small classes allow us to do so....so thank you, Athena! -Laquanna McMullen I joined Athena right out of school and made over $75,000 per year with a $12,000 sign-on bonus. Athena changed my life and I'm grateful for the experience because it opened many doors for me. -Nicole I had a wonderful time at Athena, our instructors are amazing and they help you through every step of the way. I would recommend Athena to anyone, especially family members or friends. The education I received has shown me there's more to nursing than I thought and I'm proud to be a nurse! -Rebekah Brewster I enjoyed the hands-on experience at Athena Career Academy. The labs were awesome and our instructors were knowledgeable. It was an amazing time and I would definitely recommend it to others. -Sarah Malnar I owe a big thank you to Athena Career Academy and its staff for giving me an opportunity and providing tools to become a nurse. They created an atmosphere filled with diversity, both in the classroom and clinical experience, and taught me so much about people and life. I've learned that I can always improve! -Natalia Brown For over two decades, I was hesitant to enter the phlebotomy program at Athena, but once I met my instructors and got to know the students, it was one of the best decisions I've made about education in a long time. The teachers care about our success and the small classes allow us to do so....so thank you, Athena! -Laquanna McMullen If you want to learn more about Athena Career Academy, download our program guide or take the fast track to your future today! We're dedicated to our students' personal success through a comprehensive curriculum. Looking forward to seeing everyone at the meeting tomorrow and discussing our strategies. I am very excited to attending the concert tonight with my friends. The book was very interesting and make me think a lot about life. He decided to follow his dreams and starting his own business, which is now a great success. Athena Career Academy provides quality educational programs that produce a competent and educated workforce. Our goal is to inspire a respect and value for lifelong learning. We are dedicated to the personal success of our students and offer comprehensive curriculum designed to prepare them for a satisfying career in today's economic environment. We strive to create a nurturing training environment that meets the needs of our student base, with a focus on positive relationships between the student and instructor. Our instruction includes teaching best practices of adult learning, career placement, dignity, cultural diversity, and customer service. We believe that learning is enhanced through "soft skills", personal tutoring, hands-on instruction, and student-centered learning. Our students are trained to make a positive difference in their chosen careers, and we are proud to offer Title IV Financial Aid for our day and evening Practical Nursing, LPN to RN program and Early Childhood Education to those who qualify.